General Process of Forfeiture of Seized Assets

Procedural Issues:

1. Adequacy of notice: Notice often given at owner's previous address while owner is in custody.
2. Failure of notice may result in default judgment.
3. Default judgment may be vacated later on motion by owner.
4. Case may languish if notice not given promptly or not actively pursued.

G.L. c. 94C, §47, Forfeitures under the Controlled Substances Act (1971)

§47(a) authorizes forfeiture of:

- controlled substances
- materials, conveyances, equipment, etc., “used or intended for use” in manufacturing, delivering, distributing, transporting, concealing, etc.
- “moneys . . . or other things of value furnished or intended to be furnished . . . in exchange for a controlled substance . . . , all proceeds traceable to such an exchange”
- “real property . . . used in any manner . . . to commit or to facilitate the commission of a violation”

Exception: Conveyances and real property only if owner “knew or should have known” of use. Real property also subject to homestead exemption.

§47(b) Property subject to forfeiture “shall, upon motion of” AG or DA “be declared forfeit by any court . . . having final jurisdiction over any related criminal proceeding.” So Commonwealth may move for forfeiture upon conviction, by plea or trial, in District Court/BMC or Superior Court.

§47(d) Commonwealth may file separate civil action seeking order of forfeiture.

- DA or AG may file proceeding in rem in Superior Court for order of forfeiture.
- Court “shall order” notice by certified or registered mail to owner “and such other persons as appear to have an interest.”
- Court may issue ex parte order to seize or secure, or for custody of, property pending proceeding.
- Court must hold hearing within two weeks of notice; may continue hearing, on request of owner, pending outcome of criminal prosecution.
- At hearing: Commonwealth has burden to show probable cause; then claimant (owner) has burden to prove not subject to forfeiture.

G.L. c. 90, §24W, Forfeiture of Motor Vehicles Owned by repeat Drunk Driving Offenders (2005)

- Can be filed in either District Court/BMC or Superior Court, but are almost exclusively brought in the District Court/BMC.
 - There were 15 forfeiture cases filed under G.L. c. 90, §24W, in the District Court/BMC from FY 2017 to FY 2019.

 - There were 13 forfeiture cases filed under G.L. c. 257, §6, in the District Court/BMC from FY 2017 to FY 2019.
 - Statute pre-dates more specific forfeiture statutes.

G.L. c. 265, §56, Forfeiture for Human Trafficking Offenses (2011)

- Can only be filed in the Superior Court.
 - There were 6 forfeiture cases filed under G.L. c. 265, §56, in the Superior Court from FY 2017 to FY 2019.
