Haydee Irizarry
Singer, composer

Haydee Irizarry is the lead vocalist of Carnivora; known for her blazing metal vocals, soaring range, and versatility. She is also a composer under the name Zahra Lux, showcasing her love for R&B with swooning piano melodies and passionate vocals. Irizarry studied Contemporary Writing and Production at Berklee College of Music which allowed her to compose for any ensemble and genre of her choosing. Her goal is to be limitless with her creativity and to inspire others with her work. Whether performing, painting, or learning a new craft, Haydee’s love for the arts shines through 24/7.

Photography Credit: OJ Slaughters